NEW YORK CITY.

Safe of the Union Pacific Railroad Company Broken Open by Sheriff's Officers—Origin of the Proceedings Instituted by Fiske.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 2, 1869.

A remarkable scene occurred to-day at the office of the Union Pacific Railroad, on Nassau street. Under the order of Judge Barnard, Wm. M. Tweed, Jr., the receiver appointed by the Judge, appeared in the office, accompanied by Sheriff O'Brien's deputies, and without other opposition than a warning to leave, on pain of being prosecuted civilly and criminally, proceeded to the work of breaking open the safe. The operation was finished about half-past four, and what books were found were taken before A. A. Redfield, who appears to have been some days ago appointed referee by Judge Barnard. The evidence of Mr. Tuttle, Assistant Treasurer of the company, was partially taken. The books were then committed to the receiver until to-morrow, when they will be taken before Judge Barnard. With one exception, the books captured are some two years old, the newer one embracing a portion of transactions down to December last.

Simultaneously with these proceedings an attempt has been made to directly stab the credit of the Company, by the circulation of rumors that their paper or acceptances had gone to protest, which is without the slightest foundation, and by equally false statements that bonds were down to 62½. It appears a few bonds were pressed on the market for cash and sold to 85, but the depreciation was quickly checked by unlimited offers by the Company at 90, they having within a few days refused an offer for one million at the latter rate. These transactions have no effect on the operations of the line of road which is being carried forward rapidly to completion.

It appears that the recent proceedings of James Fiske, Jr., before Judge Barnard, originated as follows: In the Fall of 1867 there was an active contest between two parties among the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company to control an approaching election of Directors. At that time Fiske tendered a subscription for one million dollars of the stock, on which he offered to pay fifty cents on the dollar. The Treasurer of the Company refused to receive this subscription, unless the stock should be paid up in full, according to the requirements of the charter. Various other parties tendered subscriptions, amounting to fifteen million dollars, all of which were refused, for the same reason, as it was known they would be when offered. Fisk afterwards bought six shares of stock, of the par value of six hundred dollars, which is the entire amount of his interest in the company.

The clipper ship Baltic, seized yesterday for a violation of the passenger act, was formerly the steamer Baltic, and was bound to San Francisco, not Liverpool. She gave $31,000 bonds, and was permitted to proceed to-day. The Judge remarked that the proceedings against this vessel were hardly warranted by the facts

Among the books found in the safe of the Union Pacific Railroad Company was the stock ledger of the Credit Mobilier, in which the following names appeared: Thos. C. Durant, Geo. F. Train, C. M. Hall, O. W. Barnes, L. E. French and G. T. M. Daly.

High Water at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, April 2.—The Ohio river at this point has been rising at a very rapid rate for several days, and the water to-day reached the sidewalks on the lower warf. It is feared that the inhabitants along the levee will soon be driven from their quarters by the approaching flood.

—The Association of the Army of the Potomac will give a grand banquet in New York on the 6th of July next.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

[FIRST SESSION.]

SENATE: Indian Appropriation Bill Passed—Bill to Establish a Uniform Currency. HOUSE: Covode-Foster Contested Election Case Discussed and Recommitted.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 2, 1869.

SENATE.

Mr. HOWARD presented a resolution of the Legislature of Michigan in favor of the construction of a ship canal to connect the St. Lawrence with Lake Champlain.

Mr. DRAKE presented a protest of the Kentucky loyalists against removing political disabilities from Kentucky rebels. Referred to Committee on Disabilities.

Mr. RICE reported a bill to extend the time for the construction of the first section of the Little Rock and Fort Smith Railroad. He asked immediate action.

Objected to.

Mr. HOWE, from the Committee on Claims, reported a bill for the settlement of the claims for quartermaster and commissary stores furnished to or taken by the United States within the States in rebellion during the late war.

Mr. SHERMAN introduced a bill in relation to the coinage of gold and silver, which was referred to the Committee on Finance. With a view to promote uniform currency among nations, it provides for the establishment of a new standard of weight and fineness for United States coinage, being identical with the bill reported from the Committee last year.

Mr. HOWE moved to proceed to the consideration of the bill to extend the time for the construction of a railroad from St. Croix lake, or river, to the west of Lake Superior.

Messrs. MORRILL and CONKLING opposed the motion, but it was carried.

Mr. MORRILL moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Public Lands.

This motion was discussed until the expiration of the morning hour, which brought up the Indian Appropriation bill, as unfinishad business.

Mr. HARLAN, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, offered several amendments.

An amendment providing for the organization of a Board of Ten Commissioners, to be selected for their intelligence and philanthrophy to supervise, to control disbursements of appropriations for Indian purposes, was modified, on motion of Mr. FESSENDEN, so as to give the Commissioners not absolute control, but only joint control with the Interior Department, under the direction of the President. It was then agreed to.

The bill was then passed.

At half-past three, the Senate went into Executive session, and after some time spent therein adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. FINKELBURG introduced a bill to prevent vexatious land litigations. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

The joint resolution to purchase or lease suitable premises in New York for the Staff Department of the Army, etc., was passed; also, relative to government buildings at Totten, Dakotah, with amendments.

The River and Harbor appropriation bill was reported, and made the special order for to-morrow.

The Election Committee reported that J. T. Hoge has a prima facia right to the seat for the Third South Carolina District.

The House then took up the Covode-Foster contested seat case.

The debate on the question occupied the whole day's session, but was devoid of any feature or incident of public interest.

Mr. PAINE moved to recommit the whole subject, with instructions to report on the merits of the case.

Mr. SCHOFIELD said he was requested by his friend (Mr. Covode) to say he was not opposed to the motion made by Mr. Paine, and desired to have the whole subject investigated on its merits. What he was opposed to, was the giving the seat temporarily to Mr. Foster, on the mangled election returns, which the Governor had rejected.

Mr. CESSNA also approved of the motion made by Mr. Paine.

The previous question was seconded, and the motion by Mr. Paine agreed to without discussion.

So the whole subject was recommitted.

Mr. WILSON, of Minnesota, introduced, and asked to have acted on immediately, a bill authorizing the Northern Pacific Railroad Company to extend its branch line from a point near Portland, Oregon, to Puget's Sound, and to connect the same with its main line at the Cascade Mountains, the Company not to be entitled to any subsidies, money, bonds or lands, except such lands as may be included in the right-of-way. He explained the object of the bill.

Mr. WHEELER, Chairman of the Pacific Railroad Committee, moved an amendment, requiring at least twenty-five miles of the extension to be completed by the first of July, 1871, and forty miles per year thereafter.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. FITCH moved to lay the bill on the table. Rejected.

The bill was then passed without division.

Mr. CAKE, from Committee on Printing, reported a resolution rescinding orders heretofore given for the printing of the accounts of the Treasurer, and of the evidence in the Busteed impeachment case, Alaska and Overland Mail case, the reports only to be printed.

Mr. JENCKS moved to lay the resolution on the table.

On division the vote was ayes 52, nays 45—no quorum voting.

The House thereupon, at 4:30, adjourned till to-morrow.

ANNEXATION OF BRITISH PROVINCES.

Correspondence has been in progress for some time between certain prominent men in the British Provinces and leading men in this country, relative to the prospective annexation of the Provinces to the United States. Enough has been developed to warrant the belief, among some members of Congress, that if the matter could be reached in an official way, proposals would eventually be made to the United States looking towards annexation.

The following resolution was sought to be offered in the House to-day, but, objection being made, the effort failed:

Resolved, That the Committee on Foreign Affairs be and they are hereby instructed to inquire into the expediency of investigating the condition of our relations, present and prospective, with Nova Scotia, and that they be authorized to report to the House at any time.

COLORED MEN APPOINTED TO OFFICE.

Two of the five persons nominated to the Senate, yesterday, for Justices of the Peace, for the District of Columbia, are colored men. B. F. Joubert, nominated to-day as Assessor of Internal Revenue for First District of Louisiana, and S. M. Weder, Postmaster at Columbia, South Carolina, are also colored men.

Lieutenant Governor Dunn, of Louisianna, colored, had an interview with President Grant to-day.

General Howard has made a large reduction of the force of his Bureau, excepting in the bounty and educational divisions. He intends to advance educational interests in the South and to appoint one Superintendent of Education in each of the States in that section.

NOMINATIONS CONFIRMED.

The Senate this afternoon confirmed the following nominations: Geo. Earle, of Maryland, First Assistant Postmaster General, vice Skinner removed; E. O. Goodrich, Surveyor of the port of Philadelphia; Geo. Bergner, Postmaster at Harrisburg, Pa., and Alfred B. Dade, Postmaster at St. Joseph, Ind.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Last Day's Proceedings -- Discussion, Resolutions, &c., &c.--Final Adjournment.

MORNING SESSION.

Institute re-assembled at the stated hour, President Douthett in the chair. The exercises were opened with prayer by Prof. Gillbert.

After a song, Prof. Jones, of Erie, delivered an address on the "Laws of Teaching." He held that the following were the most important laws: First, Teachers should know well what they pretend to teach; Second, They should get and keep the attention of the pupils; Third, They should use plain language; Fourth, They should pass from the known to the unknown; Fifth, They should tell nothing the pupils can ascertain for themselves; Sixth, They should require pupils to tell, in their own language, all they know about the lesson; Seventh, Reviews should be frequent. The speaker commented upon these laws at some length, and contended that a strict observance of them would be beneficial.

After a recess of five minutes Prof. Northrop was introduced and delivered a lecture on gymnastics, and urged its general introduction into the public schools. He contended that such exercise would contribute to the development of the physical powers of pupils, and would likewise stimulate the mental faculties.

When the Professor had concluded, the President announced that the next business in order would be a discussion on the question "Are the evils of absenteeism, irregular attendance and truancy capable of correction or materially lessened by legal enactment?"

Prof. Northrop opened the discussion. He had no fault to find with the law on this subject, but he contended that kindness and moral suasion on the part of the teachers would exert more influence in correcting the evils complained of.

Rev. Mr. Gilchrist, of Washington county, thought something could be done by legislation. Kindness and moral suasion could not reach children who would not come to the school, and he favored the enactment of some law which should compel attendance. When that was secured, the influence of kindness and moral suasion could be brought to bear.

Mr. Johnston, of Plum township, thought that, in the rural districts at least, the attendance of pupils would not be such as was desired until the school houses and schools were made comfortable, pleasant and inviting. Without such improvement all other efforts to correct the evils would be in vain.

Prof. G. L. B. Eberhart, of New Brighton, read selections from Bryant, Saxe, and "Sheridan's Ride."

Prof. Shoemaker followed in a brief lecture on Elecution as a Science.

The Institute then adjourned until two o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Institute opened at the usual hour, with music by the choir.

Miss H. Renwick, Principal of the Eighth ward, schools, Allegheny, then read an interesting and well written essay on "Success."

Prof. Shoemaker then read several selections in his usual effective style, after which Mr. Horner sang the song "Free as a Bird," with most admirable effect—Miss Frisbee performing the accompaniment.

Prof. Congdon, of Harrisburgh, then spoke for fifteen minutes on the subject of teaching penmanship. He thought little children should write at least an hour each day. In some schools the pupils wrote but one line, two or three days in the week. In a session of ten months, the quantity written was not more than would occupy a good writer two hours. He thought this was a great mistake and supported his position by forcible argument.

REMARKS OF PROF. WICKERSHAM.

Prof. Wickersham, State Superintendent, was then introduced. He expressed his gratification at the large attendapce, and argued from it that the cause of education was progressing in Allegheny county. He then spoke of the fact that the Legislature, for the first time in its history, had passed the school appropriation. The sum appropriated was $500,000. The "machine" ran itself now, and he was not ashamed to ask for all the money demanded by the children of the Commonwealth. He then alluded to the amount being spent in building schools in the State. Almost $2,000,000 had been expended for this purpose last year, and this year the indications were that $2,500,000 would be expended—an amount greater than was expended in any other State, even in the great "Empire State" itself. This was another very gratifying fact. The proposed changes in the law relative to the collection of school taxes, and allowing uniformity in text books in school districts, were then alluded to. The speaker doubted the propriety of concentrating large interests in the hands of book publishers. The speaker continued his remarks on the different questions arising in the management of the Common School System, exhibiting a thorough acquaintance with the subject, and engaging the close attention of the Institute throughout.

Rev. Mr. Gilchrist, of Washington county, made a brief speech, congratulating the Institute upon its success.

Mr. Caldwell then announced the organization of the Committee on Permanent Certificates, with B. F. Gamber as President, and J. Morrow as Secretary. The Committee will meet on the second Saturday of each month, excepting July, in Prof. Curry's school room, St. Clair street.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. McClymonds, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, suomitted a report. We append the more imtant of the series:

4. That the Legislature be requested to pass a law which will compel every child of the Commonwealth to receive an education, sufficient to make it an intelligent voter.

6. That the school book agency system, whether conducted openly or secretly, should be discountenanced, as being injurious to the cause of education, by inducing directors to exchange one series of books for another without any perceptible advantage, entailing needless expense, and creating and embittering opposition to the whole system of public instruction.

7. That in A. T. Douthett we recognize a faithful public officer, and respectfully request the directors of Allegheny county to re-elect him to the office he has filled with credit to himself and benefit to the cause of education.

The eight resolution was one of thanks to the different musical organizations participating in the Institute, and to the members of the press.

The ninth and last resolution was expressive of regret at the death of Hon. Charles R. Coburn, in whom the case of education had lost an able supporter.

A motion was made to take up the resolutions seriatim, but the President suggested that to do so would consume too much time.

It was then moved to adopt them as read, and agreed to by a very light vote—several ladies pronouncing an emphatic no.

The Institute adjourned until evening.

EVENING SESSION.

Superintendent Douthett called the Institute to order at seven o'clock. The attendance, both of teachers and visitors, was much larger than usual.

The Philharmonic Society rendered in excellent style, as an opening exercise, a song entitled "Spring Time," after which Rev. Wm. Evans was introduced, and entertained the audience with elocutionery exercises for about half an hour.

Misses Frisbee and Johnson now favored the audience with a vocal duett, which was heartily encored.

A recess of five minutes then followed, after which Prof. Caldwell offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of the State Teacher's Association be requested to hold the next meeting of the Association in Allegheny City.

Adopted.

Messrs. Douthett, Caldwell, and Still, were appointed a Committee to confer with the State Committee in reference to the matter.

Prof. J. P. Wickersham, State Superintendent, was then introduced and delivered a lecture, in which he discussed at length the objections made to the Common School system by its opponents. He said the objections seemed to be those which were made to the principle upon which it was based and the plan by which it was carried out.

The speaker then took up in detail and examined in an able and convincing manner the minor objections arising out of these two, contending that they are without foundation, and at variance with the progressive spirit of the age.

At the conclusion of Prof. Wickersham's remarks, the Philharmonic Society sang the hymn, "What mean those holy voices," after which a resolution was passed, requesting a copy for publication of Rev. J. B. Clark's lecture, (delivered Thursday evening), also a resolution thanking Prof. Wickersham for his able address, and expressing the confidence of the Institute in his ability and devotedness to the school interests of the State.

Professor Shoemaker then read a number of selections, after which a resolution of thanks to Professor Douthett for the manner in which he had presided over the deliberations of the Institute was unanimously passed.

The Benediction was then pronounced by Rev. Evans, and the ninth annual session of the Allegheny County Teachers' Institute stood adjourned.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a special meeting of the borough Council of Mount Washington, held Thursday evening, April 1st, the following preamble and resolutions were offered by Mr. D. B. Ferguson and unanimously adopted by the Council:

WHEREAS, The Almighty, in His inscrutable wisdom, has removed from amongst us Isaac Whittier, Burgess of the borough of Mount Washington, we members of the Council, over which deceased presided, deem it but fitting to pay tribute to his memory. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Isaac Whittier, our borough has lost a most excellent citizen and an efficient officer. In his long sojourn in this community he was ever held in the highest esteem, his integrity being of the highest order, and his life pure and unspotted in all respects.

Resolved, That the Council present to the friends of deceased an attested copy of these resolutions, and that they also be entered upon the minutes of the borough Council.

THE WET SHROUD.

"Ach, Sohn! was halt dich zurlick?"
"Siehe, Mutter, das sind die Thranen."
[Mutterthranen.

They gave her back again;
They never asked to see her face;
But gazed upon her vacant place,
Moaning, like those in pain.

There was a brief hot thirst;
A thirsting of the heart for streams
Which never more save in sweet dreams
From that lost fount should burst.

There was a frightful cry,
As if the whole great earth were dead;
Yet was one arrow only sped,
One, only, called to die.

Then all grew calm as sleep:
And they in household ways once more
Did go: the anguish half was o'er,
For they had learned to weep.

They stood about her bed,
And whispered low beneath their cloud;
For she might hear them speaking loud—
She was so near, they said.

Softly her pillow pressing,
With reverend brows they mutely lay;
They scarcely missed the risen clay
In her pure soul's caressing.

Last, from their eyes were driven
Those heart-drops, lest—so spoke their fears—
Her robes, all heavy with their tears,
Might clog her flight to heaven!

Eating and Dinners.

In the Herald of Health Rev. Mr. Frothingham has an article entitled "Eating and Drinking Damnation," from which we make a few extracts:

If the statistics of gluttony had been as carefully looked up as the statistics of drunkenness have been, their would, no doubt, be a fearful tale to tell on that side. The evils of excessive and unregulated drinking, though appearing in different form, they make less impression on society. An enormous burden of debt is pressing upon our people, relief from which would give an impulse to every working faculty, and every industrial interest; and a sum of money, equal to three-fifths of the whole of it, is annually spent by the people in a way that cripples those faculties, diminishes the working power in the community, and aggravates every depressing and disabling influence. In the manufacture of the stimulants thus consumed, there are used $750,000,000 worth of grains, all brimful of divine benignity, rich with material for happiness, teeming with future comfort, increase and nobility, big with the coming civilization of mankind. So much nourishing force of blood made a cause of corruption in the blood! Is not that drinking damnation? To the value of food products add the labor that is withdrawn from useful channels, and practically wasted in the manufacture of this desolating power, and we have $2,250,000,000 per year, a sum sufficient to pay the whole interest bearing portion of the public debt. Is not that drinking damnation? Consider that this immense consumption is a consumption not of values only, but of that which creates values, of muscle, tissue, nerve and brain; consider that these drinking habits tend steadily, invariably, inevitably to blunt sensibility, deaden conscience, paralyze affection and will, that they mean waste of time, effort, and opportunity, can we express too strongly the conviction that something very like damnation results from them? The dinner table is in the way of reform. It is wound about with such meshes of ceremony and etiquette, it is so associated with manners, there goes along with it such a mass of opinion on all subjects affecting society, it is the rendezvous for so much conventionality of mind and feeling, that to break away from it is a task the strongest shrink from, and to remember that the soul sits down at it, requires an effort of imagination too severe for ordinary men and women to make; but if it could be made, such weight would be added to the self-respect of the better classes and the worst—the better classes would be inspired with such earnestness, the worst would be shamed into such moderation; the better classes would become so alive to their duties; the worst would become so alive to their interests; such an amount of right mindedness and sound heartedness would be generated, that a kind of salvation would begin to dawn, on the spot—the salvation of personal health and wealth, domestic peace, parental nurture, filial education, of social quietude and peace, honest dealing, pure speech, gentle manners, and that reign of law which promises a better age. The depressing thought is, that our unconscious habits undermine our humanity. The stimulating thought is, that by a change in these habits, we might effect a radical change in the social constitution.

The bearing of these daily habits on social ethics is very wide. They all go together. Eating and drinking work in company with dress, and find in dress a valuable auxillary. The social aspects of costume, the spiritual bearings of apparel, present material sufficient alone for a long treatise. It is no light consideration, that of clothing, seeing that on it depends the freedom of our breathing, the erectness of our bearing, the liberty of our physical action, and through them the comfort of our minds, the evenness of our tempers, the character of the society we cultivate, and the cost of the interests we pursue. We imagine that the world is kept back by some nameless, invisible, intangible monster of depravity, who has his seat in regions above our will, and can be dethroned by nothing less potent than the special grace of God. It is not so. The world is kept back by cooks and bar-tenders, by tailors and bootmakers. The reformers must ever face an army of milliners. The most formidable enemy the anti-slavery cause had to confront was the gentility that could not wear tweed or calico, or associate with those that did. Fine hats stopped the windows that might have let in light. Conscience waited on cloth. Patent leather and delicate kid suppressed conviction. The conventions brought together every kind of men but the well-dressed men. The dress was a livery that could not be disguised. The man might be willing to go, but the broadcloth was backward, and the broadcloth was the person. To overcome the consciousness of apparel was to overcome the consciousness belonging to a particular class in society. Could people have been put into blouses and felt hats, we should have seen them marching off in troops to the rendezvous of radicalism. The political party which numbers in its ranks the largest number of gentlemen, is certain if election day happens to be stormy, and the leaders anxiously watch the clouds and the weather-cock, knowing that with their constituency the question is one of silk hats vs. vapor. Principles are unequally matched with prunella.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, April 2, 1869.

The markets in a general way continue very dull, but business men still console themselves with the hope that an improvement is near at hand. It is to be hoped that business generally will be better this year than it was last, which was one of the worst we have experienced since the commencement of the late rebellion. There were very few business men who made anything; some managed to clear expenses, while quite a number were forced to the wall, and that, too, pretty badly. There was an unusually large number of failures in Pittsburgh during 1868, nearly all of which can be traced to overtrading, and we think that with the experience of the past year in view, there will be fewer of them in 1869. The sooner people become reconciled to do business in a legitimate way, stop this overtrading and be satisfied with old-fashioned margins, the better it will be for the country at large.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about stationary last evening, with fifteen feet in the channel by the Monongahela marks. The weather has turned somewhat colder with every appearance of snow.

There has been no arrivals or departures since the date of our last report aside from the packets. The Wauanita from New Orleans, Mgggie Hays from St. Louis, and Robert Burns from Cincinnati, are among the first boats due.

Business still holds out pretty well, taking every thing into consideration, and the shipments by river during the winter and spring have been large, though freights have been carried so cheap that our steamboats have made but very little money. It is bad enough to have to compete with railroads but when they get to cutting among themselves, as has been the case, unfortunatly, it is still worse.

Capt. E. B. Trinidad, we understand, previous to his departure for New Orleans, contracted for a small boat to be used in towing for some salt company with which he is connected, in Louisana. Capt. Dowty, who was here at the same time with Capt Trinidad, prospecting, has gone to Louisville for the same purpose. Capt. Dowty contemplatles building a boat for the Red River trade.

A Cincinnati exchange reported the other day that Capt. Asa Shepard, late of the Armenia, destoyed by fire at St. Louis, had been interested in twelve boats, that had been destroyed in one way or other and pronounced him an unlucky man. Capt. Shepard is an old steamboatman, and has been interested in quite a number of boats, only two of which, the Winchester and Armenia, were destroyed. There are no doubt plenty of steamboatmen, who have been interested in half a dozen boats that have been unfortunate, without being considered unlucky, and we cannot see the point in coupling Capt. Shepard in this connection.

The Kenton arrived from Portsmouth Thursday night, and departed again last evening.

Mr. Gebhart, bar keeper, on the ill-fated Armenia, arrived home yesterday. He reports having left Capt. Hamilton and Clerk Shepard at St. Louis.

It is said that the Pittsburgh isurance companies lose fully $80,000 by the St. Louis conflagration, and some reports put it even higher.

—The Argonaut No. 2, left Little Rock for Ft. Smith on Friday last.

—Capt. J. T. Stockdale's new steamer Australia, is announced for New Orleans.

—The Maggi Hays, with 750 tons on boat and barge, left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

—The Grey Eagle, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular packet for Parkersburg today, leaving at noon.

—The Robt. Burns, in command of Capt. Frank Marratta, left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

—The New York arrived at Nashville on Wednesday, the Glendale at Cairo, and towboat Alps at New Orleans.

—Capt. Lew, Vandergritt, the wharfboat proprietor at Mt. Vernon, was married on last Wednesday, the 24th inst., to a lady of New Harmony.

—The Kate Putnam, Capt. G. W. Reed, is filling up steadily for Nashville and will be the first boat out for that point. She is in good condition for business.

—The Collossal, Capt. M. A. Cox, is announced for St. Louis and Fort Benton forthwith, as is also the Nick Wall, Capt. Tom Poe. These are both bran new boats.

—The new Northern Line packet, Minneapolis, Capt. T. B. Rhodes, is almost completed, and will commence business next week. She is a real beauty and no mistake.

—The St. Louis Democrat, thinks the rates recently adopted by the Northern Line and Northwestern Union Packet Companies are so high that all grain shipped from the above rapids will go through Chicago.

—The Thompson Dean, which left St. Louis Saturday for New Orleans, had on board the materials and carpenters to build a full length cabin of elegant design and commodious appointments. The cabin will be ready for use on the next trip but one.

—Larry Harmstad has sold his "star" wharf-boat at Memphis to parties who have taken it to Helena. The Appeal, noticing its departure, wishes it a safe voyage, and expresses the hope never again to see a private wharf-boat at Memphis, and it is about right.

—The officers of the Northern Line for the present season are as follows; President, Capt. James Ward; Secretary, Capt. Thos. H. Griffith; Superintendent, Capt. T. J. Binford; General Agent, Capt. Isaac M. Mason; Maj. W. N. Starke, late freight agent of the N. W. U. Co., will assume the same position on the Northern Line under the compromise arrangement.

—The St. Louis Democrat, of Sunday, says: Captain Joab Lawrence arrived in this city yesterday. He seems unconcerned about the transportation contract. His ideas on the subject which has agitated so many, he keeps to himself. Hiram K. Haslett and W. J. Kountz are also reticent, perhaps because they have no information on the subject that is not already known to every body.

John N. Bofinger quietly reclines on his easy chair in the universal fast freight line, exchanging jokes with the burly H. H. Symmes, and appears quite unaffected by any thing that has recently occurred. More we could say, but it may be enough to reiterate, that an immense ameunt of private freight, and an immense amount of Government freight, will be shipped this year to the Upper Missouri River, at fair rates too, we are confident.

—Mr. Thomas Boden, of Louisville, has been granted a patent for an improved safety-valve for steam-boilers. Mr. Boden believes that steam has two forces, viz.: expansion and "collapsion," and has constructed this valve upon that theory. It is in fact a double valve, one upon the outside and the other upon the inside of the boiler, acting in unison. The weight is so arranged that it can not be tampered with by reckless engineers. The theory of Mr. Boden is comparatively new, but recent investigations seem to sustain it. He claims that with his valve attached the explosion of a boiler is an impossibility. Arrangements are being made to give a practical and thorough test of the invention at an early day.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 131⅛.

THE names of Hon. RUSSELL ERRETT, for Assessor, and T. W. DAVIS, for Collector of the XXIId Revenue District, were sent into the Senate yesterday. Their confirmation is not to be doubted.

THE Peruvian government proposes to refer all the questions at issue to the arbitration of President GRANT. The concurrence of Spain in the proposition is not yet announced, but is confidently expected.

WE HAVE reports of new discoveries of silver in Sonora, less than a hundred miles from San Francisco. That Mexican State rests on the Eastern Coast of the Gulf of California, and barely touches our own State with its northwestern corner. It has long been known that Sonora was rich in those metalic treasures, with their development awaiting the ultimate annexation to the Union.

THE depression of their cotton-manufacturing interests attracts the serious attention of the English press. It is stated that times are now almost as bad in Lancashire as at any period during the rebellion. On the 17th ult. the long-expected strike began among the operatives—those at Preston ceasing work in consequence of a ten per cent. reduction in their wages. As this reduction has been resolved upon by the trade generally, the strike will extend to other districts of the Kingdom. Nor do the employers care about going on, even at the reduction. Grave apprehensions, therefore, exist as to the future condition of a very numerous working-class.

GREAT BRITAIN produced, during the year 1867, metals, coals and other minerals, to the value of £43,486,092, equal to about $250,000,000 of our currency. The coal production was 104,500,840 tons, of which about 9,761,827 tons were exported, 277.176 tons going to North American ports, and nearly 2,000,000 tons going to France. The consumption of British (not Provincial) coals in the United States is confined to our seaports, and mainly to the gas companies which use them for mixing with the coarser bituminous coals of the States and of Nova Scotia. London alone consumed, in 1867, coals to the amount of 6,322,033 tons, taking in that supply one half by sea and the other half equally devided between railway and canal carriage.

A RUMOR was circulated yesterday, at Washington, that the President considers the propriety of vetoing the new office-tenure bill. The only basis for the rumor was found in the fact that certain politicians who were conspicuous in the recent struggle, on the floor of Congress, to bring about an adjustment not in accordance with the explicit understanding between the President and the Senatorial Committee, have continued to be active in efforts to compromise Gen. Grant, upon the question of executive approval. These politicians have, it is said, called at the White House to remonstrate against his signature. How much they have really taken by their motions may be seen from the significant fact that the President yesterday transmitted two or three hundred of the long-delayed nominations to the Senate. This is entirely incompatible with the idea that a veto is proposed.

REPRESENTATIVE NEGLEY is about to report a bill providing for the muster-out of a large number of army-officers now on the retired list. His bill very properly retains such officers as have distinguished themselves in the service, or by wounds; but sends the residue of the retired-list to a Commission for enquiry and a report upon each case. We cannot doubt that the interests of the service, and of the country, would be promoted by the proposed diminution of these superfluous veterans, who have been carpet-knights and nothing else. Beyond that, public sentiment might be unwilling to go. But, even within the limit thus suggested, our Representative will find that he stirs up a hornet's nest, and that he will encounter the most bitter opposition, expressed in every form known to a Washington lobby.

THERE can be no doubt that an organization of citizens, calling itself a Vigilance Committee, exists in New York. It is equally probable that this association has been formed for the express purpose of securing the arrest and due punishment of the villians who swarm in the Metropolis, and who control its elections, its Courts and all its municipal authorities. But as to the number of citizens concerned in this movement, the extent of their organization, and the resolute determination which governs their councils, the public information is really vague. Much has been said about this Vigilance Committee, and little or nothing is really known. If it exists, and is of the character usually attributed to such irregular exponents of the public dissatisfaction, its first public demonstration is likely to be a decisive one.

TO-DAY we surrender much of our space on the second and seventh pages to the announcements of sales to be made by Sheriff SAMUEL B. CLULEY, at the Court House, by order of the District Court, on Monday morning, the 26th instant, at ten o'clock. Much very desirable real estate is included in the sale and capitalists should be in attendance. It will be observed that an unusual amount of property has fallen into the Sheriff's hands, and consequently largely increased the work of the office. But Mr. CLULEY is possessed with rare business qualities and liberal capacity, so that things go on more smoothly than ever in his office, notwithstanding the much heavier pressure of labor. The term for which he was elected is drawing to a close, and there are few interested in the affairs of the county but will regret that the law prevents him retaining longer a position he has so faithfully and efficiently filled.

CANADIAN ANNEXATION.

Some members of Congress are said to believe that a project for annexation to this Union has friends among influential Canadians. Very likely! Every one knows that some members of Congress can be found to believe anything that anybody chooses to assert. But it will be a long time before our Government will receive authentic and responsible advices, that such a project is favorably entertained in any Canadian quarter deserving even a moment's consideration. If the politicians and people of the Dominion are pretty nearly unanimous in sentiment, upon any one subject, it is in the hearty accord with which they dislike their American neighbors. Even the Mexicans will forego their chronic love for revolutions, and agree in an unanimous pæan to the hated Gringos, before the small-beer politicians who rule Canada will lay aside their natural prejudices and consent to annexation to the Republic. We shall never occupy and possess the territory of British America, until we conquer it with our embattled legions under General MEDILL, of the Chicago Tribune. And, then, after it has been ravaged by his warriors, the territory will not be worth having.

A PITTSBURGH TRIUMPH.

No argument has been more forcibly used, or with more damaging effect against tariff interests, than that drawn from the fact that America had to depend on Prussia for a quality of steel sufficiently hard and perfect to be used in the rolling of silver and other obstinate and compact metals. In the mints of the United States the rollers used bore the imprint of a foreign manufacturer, and that truth had but to be cited to bring the blush to our own steel workers, as frequent experiments had failed to produce suitable qualities of steel for the purpose. However, Pittsburgh has achieved another triumph, and has just furnished the Philadelphia mint with a steel roller, pronounced, after actual test of several weeks, to be superior to the Prussian importations. The discovery of a process of hardening and strengthening the face of the roller was made at the Crescent Steel Works of Messrs. MILLER, BARR & PARKIN, after considerable experimenting, and it will be properly protected by patent in due course of time. The firm are now engaged in the manufacture of another roller for the same place, for rolling nickel, in which they encounter no difficulty, having thoroughly mastered the process of hardening steel to the required point. This invention is a most important one, and doubtless will attract much attention throughout the country, and at the same time be hailed as fresh evidence of the enterprise and proficiency of American mechanics.

A DANGEROUS DELAY.

The entire opposition strength in the House united with one-half of the Republican members to postpone the Mississippi bill to December next. The press-report of the preceding day left the House debating this bill, with a pending proposition, from Mr. FARNSWORTH, to substitute, for the bill regularly reported from the Reconstruction Committee, another, supposed to represent the President's views. The two bills differed materially, the regular bill re-assembling the Convention and authorizing it to designate a Provisional Governor, while the substitute merely provided for another popular vote upon the Constitution already framed, its obnoxious articles being submitted separately. Our reports state no disposition of the substitute, and we infer that Thursday's vote for postponement to next winter applied to the regular bill first before the House.

We need not repeat that we regret the action by which the House thus defer the discharge of a pressing duty to the people of Mississippi, and of the other States yet unreconstructed, and of the Union at large. It will gratify their constituents to know that Messrs. NEGLEY, PHELPS and DONLEY voted against this delay, recording their names in a minority which comprised most of the wiser and more experienced Republican Representatives. Excluding SCHENCK, FARNSWORTH and GARFIELD, the Republican yeas were made up from the Eastern States, and are nearly all of members who have National fame yet to achieve.

From this disposition of the Mississippi case, we may conclude that the House also intends to do nothing at this session with Texas, Virginia, or even Georgia. We think this is an unfortunate decision, and that another course would have been more welcome to a majority of the Republican Senators and to the country. If the progress of events, in the four States particularly concerned, should be, during the summer, in the direction of an increased tranquility, and a more demonstrative regard for the Federal authority, the present action of the House may find its justification—and not otherwise.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The official Treasury statement for the first of April shows the very large reduction of $20,140,000 in the total of net indebtedness during the month of March. The increase of debt bearing coin interest is only some $16,000; that bearing currency interest is reduced about $3,000,000; some $400,000 of the matured debt has been paid off, and about $7,000,000 of the debt bearing no interest has been discharged, this item being altogether in gold-certificates, upon which the owners have recalled their coin. There are about $6,800,000 of the matured debt, which has been so matured for periods ranging from six months up to six years; this sum is mainly in compound interest and 7 3-10 notes, and is doubtless retained in the place of greenbacks, by way of a reserve in bank-vaults.

This, the first statement of Secretary BOUTWELL, exhibits upon its face a flagrant disregard of the red-tape precedents furnished by Mr. MCCULLOCH. The items of the interest-bearing debt are, for the first time, all specified, with the date of the authorizing act in each case, the rate of interest, the amount outstanding, when redeemable, when the interest is payable, and the amount accrued up to the date of statement. Thus we see that the three to five months interest accruing up to April 1st, amounts to some $38,000,000. The railroad bonds, now amounting to over $56,000,000, are specified with equal particularity, the statement showing the exact issue to each company, the amount of interest paid for their account, and the amount, nearly $3,000,000 short, refunded in transportation by the companies.

The country is thus indebted to the Secretary for the first clear and satisfactory expose, in the way of a monthly statement, which has yet been issued from the Treasury. His complete removal of the cloak which has heretofore covered the gold-transactions of the Department, will be especially acceptable to financial circles.

THE NEW TENURE-OF-OFFICE BILL.

This bill repeals the first and second sections of the old law. That first section authorized persons, appointed to civil offices, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to hold such offices until their successors should be in like manner appointed and qualified. But the Cabinet officers were to hold their places during the term of the President appointing them, and for a month thereafter, subject to removal with the same advice and consent. The second section, now repealed, authorized the President to suspend for cause, during a recess, filling the vacancy with an ad interim appointment, reporting the case, "with the evidence and reasons" for the suspension, to the Senate within twenty days after its meeting. With the concurrence of the Senate, this suspension could be made an absolute removal and a successor appointed. The Senate non-concurring, the suspended officer resumes his place and salary.

For these two sections thus repealed, the following are now substituted:

SEC. 1. That every person holding any civil office to which he has been, or hereafter may be, appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall have become duly qualified to act therein; shall be entitled to hold such office during the term for which he shall have been appointed, unless sooner removed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, or by the appointment, with the like advice and consent, of a successor in his place, except as herein otherwise provided.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That during any recess of the Senate the President hereby is empowered in his discretion to suspend any civil officer appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, except Judges of the United States Courts, until the end of the next session of the Senate, and to designate some suitable person, subject to be removed in his discretion or by the resignation of another, to perform the duties of such suspended officer in the meantime, and such person so designated shall take the oaths and give the bonds required by law to be taken and given by the suspended officer, and shall during the time he performs his duties, be entitled to the salary and emoluments of such officer, no part of which shall belong to the officer suspended; and it shall be the duty of the President, within thirty days after the commencement of every session of the Senate, except for any office which in his opinion ought not to be filled, to nominate persons to fill all vacancies in office which exist prior to the meeting of the Senate, whether temporarily filled or not, and so in the place of all officials suspended; and if the Senate during such session shall refuse to advise and consent to an appointment in the place of such suspended officer, then, and not otherwise, the President shall nominate another person as soon as practicable to the said session of the Senate for said office.

The first section is a stronger vindication of the joint prerogative of the Senate than any part of the old law afforded. But the exceptions are broadly stated and mark the real distinctions between the old law and the new. It is seen that the President is no longer required to report "the evidence and reasons" for either a suspension or a removal. But no officer can be removed without the advice and consent of the Senate, either for the removal itself or for the appointment of his successor. During a recess, the President may not remove at all, so as to deprive the incumbent of the place and emoluments up to the moment when the Senate shall concur in the appointment of his successor. But he may "suspend" the officer until the end of the next session of the Senate, awarding the place and emoluments in the meantime to another. In all such cases of suspension and ad interim appointment, the President must nominate to the Senate within thirty days after its next meeting, and if the Senate rejects the nomination, he must again, "as soon as practicable," and to the same session, designate "another person" for the office. He cannot renominate an ad interim nominee once rejected. And if he makes no such other nomination with the concurrence of the Senate, the suspended officer resumes his place at the end of that session.

Before any office-tenure law was passed, such a resumption would have been impossible. It was first enacted in the law of March '67, and its principle is fully preserved and maintained by this bill. In that principle, thus preserved, is embodied practically the most complete Senatorial participation in the prerogative of removal.

The points which have been really gained in this matter are, 1st, the exemption of the President and Senate from any necessity for the assignment or consideration of any "evidence and reasons" for either form of removal, and, 2nd, the final vindication of a policy which popularizes the vast prerogative of Executive patronage—placing it upon that constitutional basis of Senatorial participation which is necessarily implied in the expressly co-ordinate assent to appointments, and which underlies jointly and equally every official act, in the exercise of that patronage, excepting alone the privilege of selecting or designating the nominee. That privilege under the Constitution belongs to the President only.

APROPOS to the attack recently made by the New York Evening Post upon Senator FENTON, whom it charged with accepting a bribe, an exchange says:

Mr. Henderson, the publisher of the Evening Post, was indicted and tried for fraud, while Naval Agent under Lincoln. Many who believed in and stoutly asserted his innocence changed their minds when, as they affirmed, Mr. Henderson took advantage while on trial of a technicality. Had he been innocent, they argue, he would have scorned to make use of any such technicality, but would have insisted on having the whole facts revealed and thoroughly scrutinized. Mr. Henderson is a heavy stockholder in the Post.

THE nomination of Gen. LONGSTREET for a lucrative post in the Customs, at New Orleans, meets with much opposition in the Senate. The protest of Senator BROWNLOW is said to have been passionately bitter and impressive. A dispatch says:

He alluded to the unrecognized suffering and destitution among loyal Tennesseans, which had been largely brought on by the desolation and persecution in East Tennessee of this man, and called the attention of the Senate to the fact that Longstreet still wore the insignia of his rebel service, and was proud of the death swards he had mown in the Union army. So damaging were Mr. Brownlow's remarks that an adjournment was had to prevent rejection.

GEN. CUSTAR, in an interesting report of his recent campaign against the Indians, after stating how he had recaptured two white ladies held by them as prisoners, and made subject in captivity to terrible indignities by the savages, says:

"The Indians express themselves heartily sick of the war, and are willing to go to that part of the country which has been designated for them, and are ready to submit to the decision of the government authorities." He further says: "We have taught the Indians that they are safe from us in no place, and at no season, and also, what some of our own people may doubt, that the white man can endure the inclemencies of winter as well as the Indians." He says that the country and the hiding places of the Indians are now better known, and that he has many officers in his command who could conduct an expedition there without guides.

Washington Items.

Secretary Boutwell and Commissioner Delano have decided to appoint no one to office as Collector or Assessor who has any other business; as these offices are of such importance as to require not only the time of the officers, but their minds must not be on anything else.

The Germans of this district, regardless of political sentiments, tendered an ovation to General Carl Schurz, in honor of his election as Senator from Missouri. This testimonial is the expression that his election is a triumph of the German element.

The fact that General Parker, of General Grant's staff, has tendered his resignation from the army, is accepted as proof positive that he will receive the appointment of Commissioner of Indian Affairs. The assertion that he is not eligible on account of his Indian blood proves to be unfounded, as his service in the army entitles him to the privilege of citizenship, so far as Federal law can grant it.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Junior Exhibition.

The exhibition of the junior class of the Collegiate and Scientific Department of the Western University, of Pennsylvania, which took place at University Hall, corner of Diamond and Ross streets, last evening, was highly interesting and creditable alike to both students and faculty. An excellent band of music was in attendance and discoursed sweet music at intervals during the entertainment. The exhibition was opened with prayer, after which fourteen original orations were delivered.

The audience was a large and highly appreciative one, and the orations were of a highly entertaining character.

The entertainment closed with prayer and benediction by Rev. Dr. Douglas, in which he made some very happy allusion to the subjects of several of the addresses.

All left the hall well pleased with the manner in which the evening had been spent.

Another Victim.

From the following, which we clip from one of our Chicago exchanges, it would appear that some of the confidence operators with which that city has been infested during the past winter, are operating on railroad trains: "A countryman, named Peter L. Nye, while traveling on a train on the Chicago, Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne Railroad towards this city, was swindled by confidence men out of $400. He accepted as security a "receipt" for $700. After obtaining the cash the thief and two other men, undoubtedly his assistants, jumped from the train. The "trick" was taken near Valparaiso, Ind. Mr. Nye hails from North Lebanon township, Lebanon county, Pa., and was en route for Burlington, Iowa, with his wife and four children, intending to settle there."

Brutal Treatment of a Child.

The hearing in the case of Elizabeth and Andrew Walsh, charged before Mayor Brush with aggravated assault and battery, on oath of Meena Weesner, which was to have taken place yesterday morning, was postponed until Monday. It is alleged by the prosecutrix that about five years since her parents died, leaving her in charge of the defendants, and since that time they have continued to ill-treat and abuse her until forbearance ceased to be a virtue and she fled, taking shelter in the house of Thomas McCoy, of Birmingham, in which borough the defendants reside. Mr. McCoy, after hearing her statement, brought the girl to the Mayor's office, and it was at his instance the information was made. If all the girl asserts be true, the defendants are worse than brutes.

Got His Desert.

Yesterday morning a fellow known as Jim Clinton, grossly insulted a respectable married lady, the result of which was his being sent to jail for thirty days. At the time mentiond the lady was coming out of a grocery store on Fifth avenue, near High street, when she was approached by the villain who used indecent and insulting language towards her. The lady endeavored to get away from him but failed, when she called an officer, who took Clinton in charge and conducted him to the Mayor's office, where the lady appeared and made her statemedt. His honor imposed a fine of ten dollars on the ruffian and in default of payment, he was committed for thirty days.

Allegheny Colored Public School.

The closing exercises of the Sixth ward Colored Public School, which came off during the past week, was one of unusual credit to its principal and directors, and general interest was manifested on the part of its friends. The essays were carefully written and well read. Accuracy in grammar and arithmetic evinced conscientious labor on the part of Prof. Neale, the efficient teacher. This school, doubtless, compares favorably with any of its character in the country, and we are pleased to note the superior development of the pupils.

Lecture.

Prof. J. Mercer Langston, of the Howard University, Washington, D. C., will, at the request of a large number of the leading men of this city, deliver a lecture at the Academy of Music, Tuesday the 6th instant. Subject—"Thaddeus Stevens, the great Commoner." Mr. Langston was General Howard's Secretary, and visited this city with the General last fall. He is an eloquent talker and a deep thinker, and we have no doubt the lecture will be unusually interesting. Tickets for sale at the leading book stores.

The Post on Dog Poisoning.

The mad dog editor of the Post is still on a hy-drophobia horse and insists that poisoning dogs is the best method of curtailing the number and lessening the danger of biting occurrences. Now let him consider this final appeal to his better judgment, and he will concur with us that his dogmatic reasoning is very bad. Suppose all the dogs were poisoned, what then would he have to write about? Suppose all the dogs so killed by poison were made into boarding-house sausages—not an improbable event—how many lives would be destroyed from eating thereof? Why should he follow on the trail of the poor cur who is entitled to have his day? Did he ever hear a mad dog cry that he can presume to raise one himself? Can he partake of the cur-rent feelings, and say with ten thousand other respectable dogs, "I am not mad, I am not mad." We fear much he is interested in a drug shop, where poison is sold, and wants to help the trade by poisoning the people against the dogs.

The aforesaid editor beautifully bursts out into the following sentiment: "Why, the life of one human being, even the writer in the GAZETTE, is worth ten thousand dogs, and in the absence of anything better, if a little poison will prevent suffering, we are in favor of its vigorous application." Thank you neighbor, for your high estimate of our life—wish you were a life insurance agent, but really we can't return the neat compliment for we know so many clever dogs who might be induced to take a little poison.

Our hydrophobiastic friend concludes his rejoinder as follows: "Since the above was in type we learn that the writer of the GAZETTE'S article had his dog poisoned. This accounts for the milk in the cocoa."

What has milk in the cocoa to do with strychnine in a dog's stomach? But this falsehood is intended to bull the market. Our dog is not dead, and if the writer of the Post knew that Keiser wanted to buy him, his announcement of the demise is malicious and mean, and intended to interfere with negotiations already opened with our German friend and dog fancier.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Miss Charlotte Thompson, the talented and pleasing actress, was the recipient of a benefit at the Opera House last night, on which occasion "Rich and Poor" and "Rough Diamond" were presented. The audience was a large, and appreciative one, and the entertainment was of a highly satisfactory character. At the matinee this afternoon, Miss Thompson will appear in "Fanchon," and in the evening, which closes her engagement here, "Madaline, the Belle of Fauburg" and "Don Caesar De Bazan" will be presented.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE—Manager Williams is doing a good business at the Pittsburgh Theatre. In addition to this excellent company the Blanchards and the trained dogs are still playing at the "Old Drury," and are an attractive feature in the entertainments. Mr. Williams is one of the most judicious managers in the city, and having the confidence and esteem of the public is sure of success.

SMYTHE'S AMERICAN THEATRE.—An attractive and highly entertaing bill will be presented at the American to-night. Mr. Smythe is a liberal manager and furnishes his patrons with first class entertainments in the variety line.

THE TYROLEAN CONCERT.—A very fair and highly appreciative audience attended the performance by the Tyrolean Singers, last evening. Their striking national costumes, their clear, fresh and natural voices, and the simple, strange and charming songs, won them at once the favor of our music-loving people to such a degree that every piece, except the first and last, was heartily encored. Particularly attractive was the singing of the alto solist, and the performance of Seppel Gsdhwandner on the zithera. This instrument was a novelty to many of the hearers; its clear metalic wooing tones "discoursed most excellent music." Our impression is, that the Tyrolese will have a still better house to-night. We can properly advise those who wish to hear music of a distinctive character, different from that of which we have abundance of opportunity to hear, to attend the concert this evening, or the matinee this afternoon. We feel sure they will be well pleased.

—A fire and burglar proof safe, weighing two hundred and fifty tons, was shipped from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh yesterday, in sections. It occupied twenty-one cars, is twenty feet long, eighteen wide, twelve high, and was eight months in constructing.

—A severe shock of an earthquake was felt at San Francisco on the evening of the first. No damage resulted to buildings.

A SIGNIFICANT LETTER.

LOUISVILLE, March 22d, 1869.—Find enclosed P. O. order for * * * which you will please place to my credit, and send immediately half a gross of Blood Searcher, and a full supply of circulars.

The demand for your medicine is gradually increasing, and I believe will eventually take the place of other similar preparations, now being extensively advertised throughout Kentucky and the Southern States, but there is little advertising needed that will reach the masses. Circulars will do very well in the locality where the Blood Searcher is sold, but the greater number are only to be reached through the medium of a popular newspaper, a few insertions is all that is required. Let the people of Kentucky once know that DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER can be had at the Medicine and Toilet Depot, Louisville, Kentucky, and I guarantee a profitable return. I have an extensive acquaintance throughout Kentucky and the South, and though I claim not to be an exception to the generality of my fellows, I flatter myself that the name of W. W. WILLIAMS, as Agent for the Blood Searcher, will at least not lessen the demand, but on the contrary, will induce many to take hold of it, and when they have done so it will matter very little who is the Agent, or where it comes from, DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER will be the medicine they have tested and what they will want. The Blood Searcher is doing good work in this locality. There are numbers to whom I have recommended it for dyspepsia, and as a general Tonic, and in every case I have had a good report. There is a gentleman in business opposite my store who has been confined to his room since July last with scrofula, a physician attending every day, and getting no better. Soon after I received your first consignment I sent him one of your circulars, but it was som etime before I heard from him, and not until I sent Mr. Boyd over to see him did he conclude to try it. He is now getting well, and regrets that he did not adopt the remedy sooner. His case was as bad if not worse than that of Mr. Boyd, and will prove a valuable acquisition to the list of cures. Allow me to congratulate you on your removal to your new store, with the hope that it it will in no way detract from your former prosperity. Respectfully,

W. W. WILLIAMS.

THE TRUE MEDICAL DOCTRINE.

Nature, when struggling with disease, indicates unmistakably the kind of assistance she requires. In cases of nervous weakness and general debility, the feeble pulse, the lack-lustre eye, the attenuated frame, the flaccid muscles, the melancholy visage, inform us as plainly as if each organ had a tongue, that a medicated stimulant is needed. It does not require the aid of a medical education to understand this dumb appeal for new vigor, from an exhausted system. Every reader of these lines can comprehend it just as well as the graduate of a physicians' college. Let not this demand of enfeebled natur be neglected. Respond to it promptly by commencing a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a preparation uniting, in their highest excellence, the properties of a STIMULANT, an INVIGORANT, and an ALTERATIVE. Before three days have elapsed, from the taking of the first dose, a marked beneficial change will be manifest in the bodily and mental condition of the patient. The pulse will be stronger and more regular, the eye will begin to lose its dull expression, the muscular and nervous systems to recover their tension, and the spirits to improve. Persevere, and a complete revivification of the depressed animal and mental powers is certain. In cases of dyspepsia and biliousness, the same salutary results will be obtained. The appetite will revive, the sallowness of the skin disappear, and all the distressing symptoms which accompany disorders of the stomach and liver, will rapidly subside. The sudden changes of spring often intensifies these complaints by checking the perspiratory action, by which so much morbid matter is evaporated through the pores of the body, and therefore the BITTERS are especially useful to the dyspeptic and bilious at this season.

THE NEW METHOD FOR THE PIANO FORTE, by WILLIAM MASON, (the distinguished pianist,) and E. S. HOADLY, is a great improvement upon all previous works, and is used and recommended as such by the best teachers. It preserves what was valuable in previous books, and adds many new features. It is the only modern Piano Forte Instructor published, presenting the technics of modern Piano Forte playing. It is easier to teach and learn from, and secures more rapid and thorough progress than any other book. No teacher of the Piano Forte can afford to do without it's aid. It is the best book for beginners and the best for those who have made progress. Price $4. To facilitate its examination by teachers, we will, until July 1st, send a single copy to any teacher of the Piano Forte, by mail, postage paid, for half price, two dollars. An edition is published with European Fingering, and one with AMERICAN FINGERING. FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, April 2, 1869.

The demand for money increased to-day, and as much as one-fourth per cent. per day, was paid for loans. Government bonds in consequence declined about ⅜ per cent. but at the close of business improved somewhat with a better feeling. The different rumors put afloat regarding the recognition of the insurgents at Cuba as billigerents, and the probable difficulties which might arise thereof, we used to bull gold, and 132 was once touched, but at the close the market reacted and fell off to 131⅜ to 131½ closing dull and weak. The reports about the return shipments of four millions of specie from London are all discredited, and only one million of small coin is shipped, likely five dollar pieces that were thrown out by the bankers for insufficient weight. The advance of the rates of Interest by the banks of England will likely bring about some changes in the exportation of bonds, and parties will find it more difficult to ship to Europe, and do as formerly, if the market does not offer a sufficient profit, hold for higher prices, pay three per cent. interest and get six per cent.

Stocks were dull and lower, but have reacted.

NEW YORK, April 2, 1869.

The Money market worked very close up to 2:30 P. M., and the stringency was fully as great as on any previous day. The rates paid on Governments were 7 per cent. currency and commissions of 1-16, 3-32 and ⅛ per cent., while on Stocks the transactions were at 7 per cent. currency and commissions of 1-16, ⅛, 3-16, ¼ and ⅜ per cent., the latter price being paid quite freely on New York Central. It is a noticeable fact that during the morning greenbacks were worth ⅛ per cent. premium over certified checks. This arose from the fact that money was borrowed yesterday to be returned to-day in greenbacks, and as these are not very plenty at present, the aforesaid borrowers were compelled to pay ¼ per cent. for them after half past two o'clock. The operation of buying and selling money on the street was resumed, and there were some heavy transactions. The opening price was ⅛ per cent. which was followed by sales at 1-16@7 per cent. gold and 7 per cent. currency. Afterwards the price and was run up again to ¼ per cent. and after three o'clock fell back to 7 per cent. currency, but the final business was at 7 per cent. gold. Borrowers generally paid the high rates in the morning and did not wait as late as usual, which accounts for the easing up at the close. At 6:30 P. M. 1-16 per cent. was bid for money for to-morrow on Governments, but none offered under 2-32 per cent.

Sterling in rather more demand but nominally unchanged.

Gold weaker; opened at 132, and closed at 131½. The rates paid for carrying were 7 1-32, 10, 9, 5 and four per cent. to flat. Gold clearances, $86,000,000 millions. It is reported that the Secretary of the Treasury has decided to anticipate the May coupons, but no official notification has been received at the Sub-Treasury.

Governments rather firmer but without activity. Coupons of '81, 115½@115¼; do. '62, 118⅛@118⅜; do. '64, 114@114⅛; do. '65, 115⅛@116; new do., 112⅝@113; do. '67, 112⅛@113; do. '68, 112⅜@113; 10-40s, 105@105¼.

State bonds weak, and particularly so on North Carolinas: Missouris, 87@87¼; Old Tennessees, 65¼; New do., 63¼@64½; North Carolinas, 51⅞@52¼; Pacific Sixes, 4¼@4½. The sharp decline on North Carolinas was occasioned by the non-payment of the April coupons.

The Stock market opened weak and unsettled, but soon became steady, and before the close was buoyant, with a sharp and general advance. The greatest improvement was on Northwestern, New York Central, Fort Wayne, Rock Island, St. Paul, and Pacific Mail. The large earnings of the Northwestern road for March occasioned the active demand for the stock. They are stated at $134,000 increase for the fourth week in March, and $299,000 for the month. The amount of Northwestern preferred held in Europe is 38,500 shares.

5-30 Prices—Cumberland, 35; Wells Express, 31@31½; American, 41@42; Adams, 58¼@59; Merchants Union, 15¾@16½; United States, 56¾@57; Quicksilver, 19¾@20¼; Canton, 58¼@59; Pacific Mail, 90@90¼; Western Union, 39@39¾; Mariposa, 17½@18⅛; preferred, 34@34½; N. Y. Central, 160¼@160¾; Erie, 33½@34; Hudson, 138@138½; Reading, 91@91¼; Terre Haute, 35@36; do. prf'd, 64@55; Harlem, 132½@135; St. Paul, 71¾@71¼; do. prf'd, 80@80¼; Ft. Receipts of the Sub-Treasury were $987,781; Payments $662,613; Balance $86,562,769.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, April 1, 1869.

The market although quiet, continues strong, with considerable inquiry, and but few sellers, even at present quotations. Operators generally seem uneasy and distrustful, and disposed to hold back to see what will turn up. They are timid about selling, being apprehensive that prices may go still higher, and afraid to buy lest there may be a decline. As already noted, however, the market at the present time is firm, and some are confident of still better prices while others are doubtful, contending that there is no real or substantial cause to warrant any such prediction, and that the chances for a decline or equally as good as those for an advance. There is a great diversity of opinion and feeling among operators in regard to the future course of the market, and this tends very much towards restricting business and retarding operations.

CRUDE—There are no new characteristics in the Crude market worthy of special notice; the feeling appears to be strong and prices fully sustained, though the demand does not appear at all urgent. Sale of 1,000 bbls spot at 15¼; 1,000 April, seller, at 15¼; and 2,000 same delivery and option at 15½. July to December, 500 to 1,000 per month, would probably command 17½

REFINED—Although firm, was very quiet to-day, not a single sale being reported. April, last half, 32½; April and May together, 33¼; April to September, 35; May to September, 36; and July to December, 36½; with an offer to buy 2,000 per month at that figure. A telegram from New York, late in the afternoon, reported that market strong, with offers to buy spot at 32½@33.

PITTSBURGH METAL MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, April 2, 1869.

The metal market continues very quiet, the volume of business being comparatively light, and while the demand is limited the receipts continue meagre, and there is no accumulation of stock. Eastern irons are reported as commanding relatively better prices in the eastern markets, while Hanging Rocks irons are going to Cincinnati and other points for the same reason. The great proportion of the western irons arriving are being put in on former contracts, so that, notwithstanding the demand here is light, there is no accumulation of stock, and prices as a general thing are pretty well sustained.

In regard to bar iron and nails, the reports, we regret to say, are less favorable than a week or two ago, as the orders from nearly all quarters are falling off, and the prospects for the future are not as flattering as a month since. We still have hopes, however, that the spring trade will turn out better than expected.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The suspension of the firm of L. & B. Curtis & Co., it appears, has reference solely to their house in Paris, through the over-advances of the junior partner, who is now a hopeless lunatic, and hence it is not known what effect it will have on the New York firm, which is still solvent. The dry goods market partakes of a more cheerful aspect, though trade is by no means active. Prices, however, show more steadiness, and changes are too trivial to merit attention Heavy brown sheetings range at 15½@16½ as to brand. Printing cloths held at 7¾@8 for standard, and extra makes of prints are steady at 11¾ for American and Amoskeag, and 12½ for Pacific and Spragues. The best styles of delaines are held firmy at 20, but bad styles are selling down to 17@18.

CHICAGO, April 2—Cattle Market.—Hogs active and 20@25c lower at $9,50@9,62½ for common, $10@10,12 for fair, and $10,20@10,50 for good to choice; receipts 3,761 head; shipments 2,875 head. Beef Cattle dull, weak and nominally 20@25c lower at $4,50@5,00 for common cows, $5,75@6,25 for fair to medium, and $6,50@6,75 for good shipping steers.

Street Commissioner Megraw had a number of men engaged in cleaning Federal and Ohio streets, Allegheny, yesterday.

A petition is being numerously signed for Nicolson pavement on Smithfield street, from Liberty to the Monongahela Bridge. Let us have it at once.

False Alarm.—Last night about nine o'clock an alarm of fire was struck from box 14, corner of Ohio avenue and Bidwell street, Allegheny, which proved to be false.

Concert.—A concert will be given at Grace Church, Mt. Washington, Tuesday evening next, the proceeds of which are to be donated to the church. Tickets, fifty cents.

We notice the time-honored Real Estate Agency of S. Cuthbert & Son have removed their agency to No. 39 Sixth avenue, near Smithfield street. No real estate agency deserves the confidence of this community more than the above firm. Note their change and give them a call.

Held for a Further Hearing.—Charles St. Clair, the young man charged with the larceny of a lot of jewelry from Knoebel's jewelry store, on Smithfield street, had a preliminary hearing before Mayor Drum yesterday morning, and was held for a further hearing on Saturday, April 10th, Marshal's Sale.—To day at 10 o'clock A. M. Marshal Rowley will sell at public sale Ballou's Vinegar Manufactory, Nos. 168 and 169 Second avenue. As this has been postponed several times after being announced, we would say that the sale will positively take place to-day at the above hour.

Sheriff's Sales.—Seven columns and more of our inside pages are monopolized by Sheriff Cluley this morning in the announcement of real estate sales, to take place under his auspices, at the Court House on Monday, April 26th. The advertisement is very readable and interesting to those desiring to make good investments in desirable propertes.

Arrangements on a liberal scale are being made for a grand fair to be held by the ladies of St. Agnes Church, Soho, at Miller's Hall, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Gist street, to commence on Monday evening next. The church is in heavy debt and it is to be hoped that the Fair will be a success. New attractions to ensure enjoyment of visitors will be offered each night.

Another Raid.—The police made a descent on the "Continental," an establishment well-known to readers of police news, last night between eleven and twelve o'clock, and captured twenty of the inmates, the majority being women. The keeper of the house was among the men captured. They were all furnished with lodgings at the lock-up until this morning.

Stable Entered.—At an early hour yesterday morning a raid was made on the stable of Mr. James McRoberts, near Harmarsville, on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, by burglars, who succeeded in taking away with them two valuable horses, one a soreel, and the other a dappled gray. Mr. McRoberts called at the Mayor's office and made known the fact of the robbery, but could give no clue to the perpetrators.

Provoked the Assault.—Thomas Sloan made information before Alderman Humbert yesterday against Patrick Price for assault and battery. Sloan alleged he was sitting in a saloon at the corner of Wood and Water streets a few evenings since, when Price came in and knocked him down. At the hearing it appeared that Sloan had used insulting words to Price, which provoked the assault. The case was discharged, the defendant paying the costs.

Mr. P. has removed his real estate office to No. 21 south side of the Diamond, east of Federal street, where he will be pleased to wait on all who may want his services in the way of selling or renting real estate. He is also agent for several first class insurance companies. Parties wishing insurance should call and examine his companies. We cheerfully commend Mr. Price to Allegheny readers as a fair dealing man.

Not Coming.—Mr. Murdock, the eminent actor, elocutionist and lecturer, who was engaged to lecture under the auspices of the Mercantile Library Association, has been released from the engagement till the next season, owing to his illness and inability to perform his part of the contract. The lecture season, sixteen first class literary entertainments having been afforded, is thus at an end. The season has been a brilliant one, and we hope the enterprise and liberality of the Committee has been awarded substantially in large profits to the benefit of the Library.

ART MATTERS.

The Process of Marbleizing—How it is to be Popularized in Pittsburgh.

Almost every decade of years which have flown since the incoming of the present century have been marked with some new scientific development which lessened the labor of toiling millions, carried ease and comfort into the slavery of labor, and helped to obliterate lines which divided society and withheld enjoyments and luxuries from those not blessed with much of this world's goods. Perhaps the greatest luxury leveler of the last few years has been the art of marbleizing slate, which has placed within the reach of all the most elaborate designs, wrought in the finest marbles of the world, which enter into domestic architecture, which, if in the solid originals, would cost such figures as to be obtained only by monied princes and millionaires. Although slate has long occupied humble place among the useful products of the quarry, it is now used as the basis of an art which has so rapidly attained perfection that it threatens to revolutionize the marble business and close the leading wealth-producing quarries of the world. In the process of marbleization the people have placed within their reach, at trifling cost, marbles, hardly to be called imitations, much prettier and more durable than the expensive originals from which copied. Slate possesses many peculiar and desirable properties which do not belong to marble. It will stand high degress of heat and cold much better; it is a perfect non-absorbent of moisture, being close grained and very compact; it will not chip, blister or lose its polish; neither heat nor dampness affect it—becoming harder with ordinary use, and, therefore, more durable than marble. Moreover, it will not stain or deface by oil, smoke or coal gas, and it is not easily damaged, even with acids—tests to which marble is never subjected without serious injury. In the marbleizing process certain mineral colors or metalic oxides are applied to, and absorbed by the stone, which is then subjected to a proper degree of heat until the enamel is perfectly incorporated with the slate, and becomes one substance forever.

The popularity of the art has induced the establishing of works for marbleizing on an extensive scale in this city by Messrs. Daniel Hugus & Co., who have opened their laboratory and sample wareroom at No. 187 Liberty street. A large force of skilled slate-cutters and a complement of the most expert, finished and experienced artists in the country have been secured to preside over the marbleizing department. Mr. James F. O'Brien, who is one of the few masters of the art in this country, has assumed charge of this department, which is full guarantee of the excellence of the work of the firm. Mr. Timothy O'Brien, a skilled slate cutter, is foreman of the cutting room, which is equal good evidence of the proficiency in that important branch of the business. We have not the space to describe the process, but as its results the elegant wareroom presents a study of marbles which must gratify the lover of the curious and the beautiful. The firm, in order to supply the large demand for their manufactures, have been accumulating a stock of mantels, making that branch a leading specialty. On exhibition they have exquisite imitation Spanish marble, beautiful Egyptian, richly variegated Sienna, much prettier than the esteemed original, having higher polish and better finish. Verd Antique of the most luxurious shades, serpentine, Brocatelle, dark red Italian, red and green Pyrenees, Turkish, Zapis Lazuli, Scotch and American Granites, Galway green, Inlaid mosaic and other fancy marbles held in high estimation. The black Genoese, with golden-colored and white veins coursing through it, is magnificent, while the brilliant red and brown California marbleizations would set off and adorn the parlors of any mansion. The mantels are all made up in the best style of art, and are manufactured in any shade of color ordered, to suit carpets, painting or furniture. New styles are monthly received from European designers, which enable the firm to be always ahead with the latest patterns for mantels. The prices are very liberal, costing hardly any more than those for a highly finished wooden mantel. An invitation is extended to all our readers to call at the warerooms and examine the brilliant display of rich marbleized slate mantles made at home, and offered at such inducing figures as to render them popular.

Officers Dismissed.

During the last two days three men have been dismissed from the police force, one for incompetency and two for drunkenness. The Mayor adheres strictly to the rules published for the government of the police force, and will in no instance violate them in a case of drunkenness. By this means he will soon rid himself and the city of all worthless drunken officers, and we will then have a police force that will reflect credit to the city. There is perhaps no class of persons in whom drunkenness is so great a crime, and is so utterly inexcuseable, as members of the police force, and the man who has no more respect for himself than to get drunk is not fit for the responsible position of a policeman. If there are any more drunkards on the force, they had better resign or let whisky alone, for there is only one other alternative, and that is dismissal.

The President's Piano.

The grand piano for the White House, manufactured by the celebrated Schomacker Piano Forte Company, of your city, arrived here on Monday, and was placed in the Crimson Rooms. Mrs. Grant was highly delighted with the instrument. The piano is full concert grand, in a magnificent rosewood case, with pearl moulding, beautifully finished with white enamelled plate. The keys are of the purest ivory. Thus for two successive Administrations have the Schomacker Company carried off the palm against all others in furnishing pianos for the White House. The instrument selected by Mrs. Lincoln will be sent in a few days to Philadelphia, where, on account of its historical associations, I have no doubt it will create as lively an interest as it does here.—Philadelphia Press.

Barr, Knake & Buettler, No. 12 Sixth street, are the sole agents for the above splendid Pianos, and are just receiving their spring assortment.

Popular Prices.

If any of our readers desire to know what "popular prices" are, they can obtain full information by calling at the dry goods store of E. R. Gardner, on the west corner of Market street and Fourth avenue. We have already alluded to the handsome stock of goods now being offered at this house, but we again call attention to the fact that in point of completeness, quality of materials and variety it cannot be surpassed. The most important fact is that the goods are being sold at such reasonable rates, as will be seen by glancing at the prices given elsewhere. Purchasers should not fail to examine the stock.

THE COURTS.

Quarter Session — Judge Stowe—The Verdict in the Bell Arson Case—Not Guilty.

FRIDAY, April 2. Upon the opening of Court the jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. John Bell, Charles Prowitt and Thomas Graham, indicted for attempting to burn Bell's Trunk Factory, came into Court and rendered a verdict of not guilty as to all the defendants.

GUILTY OF HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

In the case of James Allen, indicted for highway robbery, previously reported, the jury returned a verdict of guilty and the defendant was remanded for sentence.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Caroline Meyers, indicted for assault and battery, Ann Kelly prosecutrix, was next taken up. It was alleged that the offence was committed in "Limerick." The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and directed that the costs be divided between the parties.

NOLLE CONTENDERE.

Frederick Richter indicted for assault and battery, plead nolle contendere. Sentence deferred.

LARCENY.

J. Ruffing, indicted for the larceny of $205, the property of Henry Shupe, was next placed on trial. The larceny it was alleged was committed at a drinking saloon near East Liberty. The prosecutor and defendant, it appeared had been drinking and were put out of the saloon, when it was alleged the defendant put his hand in the prosecutor's pocket and took out his pocket book which contained the money. When the testimony in the case was concluded and Mr. Mackrell, who represented the defendant, arose to address the jury, the foreman told him that it was not necessary for him to take up the time. The counsel for the prosecution argued the case briefly, and after the charge of the Court the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, without leaving the box.

District Court—Judge Kirkpatrick.

FRIDAY, April 2.—In the case of Samuel Rowan et ux. vs. Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad company, the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $2,372,93.

Powell F. Clayton vs. W. and W. F. Seibert, action on Book account. The plaintiff is a wholesale boot and shoe merchant doing business in Philadelphia, and it is alleged sold defendants a lot of boots and shoes. For the recovery of the cost of which this suit was brought. On trial.

Alleged Conspiracy.

Adam Weigan made information before Alderman McMasters, yesterday, against Geo. Shactmyer, for forcible detainer, and against Shactmyer and Geo. Duft for conspiracy. The prosecutor alleges he negotiated for the purchase of a saloon on Smithfield street from Shactmyer for eight hundred dollars. According to the terms of the agreement he says he paid one hundred dollars down to secure the bargain, and was to pay four hundred more when taking possession on the first of April, and give a negotiable note for the balance after paying the four hundred. He states he engaged workmen and had the saloon thoroughly renovated and repaired, at considerable expense, the owner, Shoctmeyer, still retaining possession of the premises. On Thursday, in pursuance of the stipulations of the agreement, he asserts he was on hand and offered the note as agreed upon, together with the four hundred dollars cash, and was met with a refusal on the part of Shactmeyer to give up possession. Finding every other effort unavailing, he at last, he alleges, made the informations, as stated; that against Duft being made from a suspicion that he was influential in inducing Shactmyer to break the agreement. The accused were arrested, and after a hearing gave bail for trial.

Always Ahead.

When laughing gas was first introduced for the purpose of painless tooth extracting, it was supposed to be perfection in that line. But after many years' experience in its use, and carefully studying its chemical combinations, and the various demands made upon it for a successful operation, it was found to be wanting in some essential properties. But we are happy to say that Dr. Gillespie, 246 Penn street, has so improved the gas as to be able to extract any number of teeth without the least pain, and warrants it perfectly safe in every case. Go and try his improved gas. The number is 246 Penn street.

The Continental.

Continental money, the continental congress, continental styles and continental laws were doubtless all good things in their time, but their day and generation have passed, and greenbacks, the Congress of the United States, Paris styles and the laws of congress have superseded them; but the Continental saloon, Mr. Holtzheimer proprietor, which every body in the city knows is on Fifth avenue next door to the Post Office, is, as it always has been, the leading establishment of its character, in the city. It has not yet been superseded in any respect, and we feel confident it will not be so long as Holtzheimer is the proprietor.

Leggate, Auctioneer, 159 Federal street.

Ancient And Modern Art.

The great rivalry and competition of modern pattern and color designers, in contributing original designs of grace and beauty, and in dressing up in attractive forms, but for new purposes, the quaint conceits of the ancients, have had very singular results in the latest and most popular manifestations of industrial art in Carpets, Oil Cloths, Wall Papers, &c.

It is said, that in this eager and world-wide search for something new, the designers in carpets have forced into contribution all that is attractive in both ancient and modern art, penetrating every country and clime, and ransacking even the tombs of the dead. These cosmopolitan art-laborers have in this way stolen for our common use the curious devices upon the banners of the Moors and the shawls of Cashmere, appropriated whatever was chaste and beautiful in the productions of the looms of Persia and India; copied the choicest gems of the Alhambra frescoes; employed the typical figures and symbols of the monuments of Egypt; and delved deep down in Pompeii's treasury of quaint, but elegant art. Messrs. Oliver M'Clintock & Co., Carpet Dealars, No. 23 Fifth avenue, determined to be in the van of the enterprise and activity of this department of industry, have so enlarged their connections with the best foreign manufacturers, that by direct importation they can place before their customers the latest styles, at the earliest possible moment. They inform us, with pardonable pride, that their large spring stock of carpets is made up of the latest results of the labors of the best European designers in devising new carpets.

The curious and those interested will find a practical demonstration of the cosmopolitan tendency of the carpet designer's art, by an inspection of their new stock. The newest styles now are the Moorish, Etruscan, Arabesque, Turkey, Alhambra, Persian, Smyrna, Pompeiian and Egyptian, each style having such distinctive features as to be at once identified with the peculiar school or nationality of art whose name it bears. It is worthy of remark, and certainly cannot be gainsaved by the indifferent, that an article so important in the furnishing of a room as the carpet, and that cannot help but before our eyes every day for years, may just as well be in one of the newest and most tasteful patterns as otherwise.

Those interested should at least become familiar with the latest expressions or manifestations of the carpet manufacturer's art by an inspection of the above named styles at the spacious and well-appointed warerooms of Oliver McClintock & Co., 23 Fifth avenue.

The Mammoth Cave.

Extract from a Private Letter.

* * * * * We groped about for hours in this wonderful place. I never saw anything like it. The freaks of nature displayed here are very strange, and strike the beholder with awe. But the air in some parts of the cave is close and stifling, and when we came out I found myself saddled with a terrible fever, which entirely postrated me. The physician had never seen a case like it before, and no remedy he prescribed seemed to do the least good. My life was despaired of. Mrs. Wilson, with whom I was residing, had in the house a bottle of PLANTATION BITTERS, and she insisted that I should try it, for she said she knew it to be a certain cure in all cases of fever, debility, ague, dyspepsia, &c. I had but little faith, but finally consented to try it as a last resort. In less than three hours after the first dose my fever left me: in two days I was sitting up, and before Saturday night I was as well as ever. I tell you all this that you may know how to act in any case of fever, or any similar disease. I firmly believe the PLANTATION BITTERS saved my life. * * * * * In my next I will tell you about the cave in detail. A. J. P.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price. TH.S.T.F.

Where to Get It.

A good cigar, to those who have acquired the habit of using the weed, is indeed a luxury. It is often, however, difficult, among the quantity of inferior articles on sale, to get a good one, and thus it becomes a matter of some importance to know just where the article may be procured. To our readers we have a word of advice to offer in this respect. By calling at the establishment of John Megraw, No. 45 Hand street, they can have all their wants in this direction supplied from the immense stock which is there kept constantly on hand, and warrant one visit and a trial of any of his goods will be but the prelude to many more visits and purchases. Remember the place, 45 Hand street.
